

ENGLAND WADO-KAI KARATE-DO RENMEI (EWKR) CODE OF CONDUCT

It is the policy of EWKR that all our students, instructors, officials, parents and volunteers show a mutual respect and understanding for each other. Everyone should be treated equally within the context of the training environment and conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the principles of EWKR. The aim is for all participants to enjoy their karate training and to continue to improve their performance at their own set pace.

We will not tolerate abusive language, swearing, aggressive and intimidating behaviour, lack of respect to others and their property.

Instructors/Officials/Volunteers

- Consider the welfare and safety of students
- Promote good techniques and training and follow the EWKR training syllabus
- Ensure activities are appropriate to age, ability and experience of those taking part
- Build relationships based on mutual trust and respect
